JOB VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

Deadline: June 14, 2019

Farmington MPO Officer

The Northwest New Mexico Council of Governments (NWNMCOG) invites applications from qualified, experienced planning and management professionals for the position of Farmington MPO Officer. The State-designated Farmington Metropolitan Planning Organization (FMPO) serves the urbanized area of northeastern San Juan County, New Mexico. The City of Farmington serves as fiscal agent and subcontracts management of the FMPO to the NWNMCOG.

The FMPO Officer is classified as a Senior Professional/Supervisory position, and is responsible for management of the FMPO, including performance of professional planning tasks, development and execution of plans and policies, compliance with contractual requirements, supervision of personnel, management of budget and communication with a diverse constituency. The FMPO Officer must live within reasonable commuting distance of the FMPO offices in downtown Farmington.

Application packets may be obtained electronically from the below point-of-contact, and completed applications and associated documents must be submitted by end of business on June 15, 2019 to:
